

#23

Week Commencing: 21.3.22

Despite Covid dropping off the media's interest, it is still very prevalent in society!

In line with multiple schools, we have had a greater number of cases across pupils and staff than previously. We have managed to keep classes open, but we would ask all staff and families to be very vigilant of symptoms, and test regularly where possible. Many thanks

In more positive news, the pupils have thrown themselves in to Red Nose Day activities today whilst raising money for charity. We have held a class lego building competition!

Have a lovely weekend. - Tina Kearney, Head Teacher

Meet the new parent Governors

The newly elected parent governors, Mandy Aulak and Eion Botha wish to meet with parents to formally introduce themselves, and specifically to discuss the issue about the current operating hours of the school and the impact as well as the implications of this decision. In order to meet as many parents as possible, a zoom meeting has been arranged at 6pm on Thursday 24th March. The link will be sent via email. Mandy and Eion look forward to seeing as many of you as possible. "

Lawlors

Lawlors estate agent in Loughton High Street is inviting pupils to bring a piece of Easter art (using any art form), between 14th March and 13th April to receive a free Easter egg and to be entered in a draw for a 1st place prize!! A nice project for parents or carers to do with their child!

Birthdays that have just been and are coming up: Alexis (Purple), Alfie (Red)

Enjoy your special Day!
