Week Commencing: 12.9.22

It has certainly been a memorable week.

A warm welcome back to all our staff, families and carers within the Oak View School Community and a very large hello to those of you who are joining our school for the first time this year. It has been wonderful to have the school filled with noise and activity—just as it should be. All pupils are settling in remarkably well and we are excited about the upcoming year.

Yesterday will be a day marked in history and we join the nation in the mourning of our Queen. We know that this event will dominate social media, the television and the radio over the next 10 days and we will support our pupil’s understanding of events as best as we can, including creating a memory table in reception with objects that the pupils can interact with.

Currently we have no information on the expectations on schools for the day of the funeral, we are awaiting guidance from the Department for Education. We have decided to go ahead with our Roald Dahl day next week as we feel it is in the best interests of our pupils to continue with the day that many of our pupils are looking forward to. Today we held a minute of quiet. I wish you all a great week ahead. Tina Kearney, Head Teacher

Upcoming dates;
