Week Commencing: 20.3.23

We all enjoyed celebrating Red Nose Day on Wednesday. Pupils wore their own clothes and many of the staff turned in to pupils!! We raised £60 for this great cause. A big thank you to Willow class who organised 'Nose' themed games for the whole school in the hall!
A special mention this week to Saffron in Olive class. Saffron recently made some bead bracelets that caught the eye of Karen who brings in the therapy dogs to Oak View. Karen is also the owner of the shop 'Zee and co' in Loughton. Karen took the bracelets to put in her shop and they sold immediately! Saffron has made another batch of these beautiful pieces of jewellery to sell at the shop! A great enterprise! Look out for Saffron on the next series of the Apprentice!

Down Syndrome Awareness Day

On Tuesday we are going to wear our brightest and funkiest socks to raise awareness for our friends with Down Syndrome. If someone asks you why you are wearing them, it is an opportunity to talk about Down Syndrome and the incredible things our friends with DS achieve. For more information on the global campaign of "with us not for us" please take a look:
