

#30

Week Commencing: 10.7.23

Some of our classes have taken part in transition sessions to visit their new classrooms and new peers over the course of this week. The rest of the groups will have their sessions next week. During these times pupils have enjoyed taken part in some nice introductory activities.

Your son or daughter will also be coming home soon with their transition book, with information about their new class from September. This can be used over the summer to support understanding of the change too.

Next week we are excited to host our first Upper School Prom on Friday. There is still time to purchase a ticket (£5) if your child would like to attend. Please note this is a ticketed event for upper school pupils ONLY.

Have a great week— Tina, Head Teacher
